

PRESS RELEASE

December 24, 2024

Anderson, Indiana

The Madison County Board of Commissioners is pleased to welcome LifeStream Services, Inc. as the new service provider for the Madison County Rural Transit Service, also known as TRAM or Transportation for Rural Areas of Madison County.

LifeStream Services, Inc. has a long-standing reputation for providing transportation services to residents throughout ten (10) counties in East Central Indiana. According to their mission statement:

“Our Mission is to Provide the Right Information, Resources, and Support for Improving Quality of Life and Maintaining Independence for Older Adults, Those with Disabilities, and Caregivers. We provide services and programs to help older adults and people with disabilities remain independent. We also support caregivers who need help maintaining the health, dignity, and independence of their loved ones.”

The Madison County Board of Commissioners considers this new partnership with LifeStream Services, Inc. to be a great match for the residents of Madison County and will allow TRAM to evolve into an even more efficient and accessible public transit service to meet the transportation needs of Madison County residents and visitors.

LifeStream Services, Inc. will begin services on January 2, 2025. Operating hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and it is closed on all Federal Holidays.

To schedule a trip, the Madison County Board of Commissioners asks that all interested riders continue to use the toll-free number: 1-855-RIDETHETRAM (1-855-743-3843). Additional information regarding the TRAM service, including a downloadable brochure, can also be found at: www.ridethetram.com.

John Richwine
President, Madison County Board of Commissioners